Hi! My name is Krinkles and I am writing to let you know that while the cold weather is hard for you, it can be even harder for my friends and I. Right now, we are living at The Humane Society of Northeast Florida in Hollister, while we wait for our forever homes.

The last nights have been really cold and we've been trying to stay warm. The staff at the shelter is doing the best they can, but they are humans, after all, and still need help.

If you have extra blankets or towels and can drop them by our shelter, or at our thrift store near Walmart, we would be so grateful.

The staff is also trying to get the funds together to put up heaters in our kennels. That would help so much. I am told this is still just the beginning of our cold season. I know these times are hard on everyone, but my friends and I would really appreciate it if you could help us raise the money for our heaters. Mike dePriest has agreed to help us once again; we just need a few more great humans ... like you!

And, by the way, I am available if you know anyone who would be interested in a great forever companion.

From the bottom of our hearts,

Krinkles and friends
